

Management programs for LTC & Retirement homes

Challenged with Ministry compliance, inspection and education? Pivotal can help!

With decades of experience in working with the LTC industry, Pivotal has developed unique, comprehensive training programs enabling residences in meeting MOHLTC & RHRA's Policy and Procedure compliance as well as the requirements by MOL and Unions.

Pivotal's programs are measurable, empowering and evidence based.

Pivotal works with owners, administrators, educators and inspectors while delivering education for all required employees saving money and improving relations and quality of life.

Upon initializing Pivotal's consultant review, a customized strategy is developed and implemented through our proprietary programs covering:

Management programs for older adults, their carers and professionals

SeniorCareAccess.com

Pivotal Aging Innovations provides solutions for older adults and their carers in transition, while consistently utilizing a person centred approach

Management of Real estate and Late-in-life transitions

Canada's largest network of REALTORS® focused on Senior Transitions. The ASA™ and MASTER-ASA™ programs offer to elevate the quality level of the average REALTOR® and improves their position within the industry. Many REALTORS® are simply transaction-based practitioners, however the ASA™ program begins to bring forth the REALTOR® willing to offer improved services through education and understanding, while the MASTER-ASA™ program expands that level and offers to network with many resources and 3rd party organizations allowing them to excel as the go to network in transitioning older adults.

pivotal MASTER-ASA™ Offering solutions and Essential Conversations™ for:

- Retirement home transition services
- 55 year old couple finding themselves in an empty nest position
- A wife or husband finding themselves living alone (death of a spouse or divorce)
- Adult children faced with aging parent(s)
- Older adults faced with a decision of retirement or LTC
- Families discovering a member has developed Dementia
- Families needing to move closer together – grandparents to grandchildren
- Cohabitation of seniors or families
- Leaseback programs
- Families need for accessibility

Management of early to mid stages of Alzheimer's / Dementia

Cognitive Retention Therapy.

The Ashby Memory Method™ (AMM), is an evidence based program of interactive cognitive exercises and activities adapted from the field of brain injury. Originally developed by Dr. Mira Ashby and distributed by The Alzheimer's Innovation Institute, Pivotal offers the 8 and 10 Week programs to families and professional care providers.

- Evidence & Paper based
- Person centred
- Hands on
- Non-invasive
- Expandable

AMM is NOT group therapy, rather a one on one program based on the individuals likes, abilities, memories, experiences and Life Story, offering opportunity for improved behavior and quality of life.

Families: Families are able to take basic on-line training and begin working with their loved ones in the comfort and privacy of their own home.

Facilitators: Industry related professionals are able to become certified in delivering the AMM program to their client/patient base.

Who can be certified?

- Professional caregivers
- Retirement residences
- Speech Therapists
- Activity Coordinators
- Behavioral Support Outreach
- Dementia programs
- Occupation Therapists
- Experienced PSW's
- Seniors outreach
- RN's
- Care Provider Companies

Canada's largest professional database of retirement residence options, vacancy and referral resources

Database

SeniorCareAccess.com is like no other senior service portal! It has been developed from years of experience working and networking the senior market and collaborates with 3 powerful organizations. Senioropolis Inc, Pivotal Aging Innovations Inc. and the Canadian Seniors Association Inc.
